Industry Update September 9, 2020

NACO Small Business Grant Program

The Nevada Association of Counties (NACO) has announced the County Small Business Grant Program for eight counties, including Washoe. Funds can be used for PPE, protective retrofits, and working capital. If you are or have tenants who are a small business in unincorporated Washoe County, please click HERE for eligibility requirements and to apply. The application deadline is Tuesday, October 6 at midnight.

CDC Halts Residential Evictions

The Centers for Disease Control (CDC) has issued a nationwide halt to residential evictions in order to further prevent the spread of COVID. Under the order, renters earning less than $99,000 a year ($198,000 for joint filers) may submit a declaration asserting their eligibility to their landlord in order to be protected from eviction. The order applies to all property leased for residential purposes, including single family, multifamily, and mobile homes. The CRE Finance Council has more information HERE.
